Welcome to Van Sickle Academy
2025-2026 School year!

Welcome

The staff of the Language-base Learning Disabilities Program would like to welcome our students and families to a new school year at Van Sickle Academy! We are looking forward to working with you and your child. We feel that communication between staff and families is a strong element towards your child's academic success. We encourage guardians to contact us at any time with any questions or concerns.

Van Sickle Vision Statement
